Abstract :

The Balochi lyrical poetry has completed its fifty years, and it has passed through different stages and styles. Different themes and manifestations have been penned down by the Balochi lyrical poets from the last fifty years. After a thorough study of the Balochi lyrical poetry, researchers have concluded this observation that the practice of symbolic style of Balochi lyrical poetry has been much influenced by neighboring languages. But it would be unbelievable that Balochi has taken all its styles and appearances from other next-door languages. The Baloch poets have created their own styles and practiced new symbolic forms in the Balochi lyrical poetry. This paper illustrates all aspects of symbolic styles of the Balochi lyrical poetry.
